NATIONAL EMS MEMORIAL SERVICE
ANNOUNCES 2012 VENUES

Colorado Springs, CO - The National EMS Memorial Service today announced new venues for the 2012 National EMS Memorial Service Weekend.

The 2012 National EMS Memorial Service will be held at the Pikes Peak Center (<http://www.pikespeakcenter.com>). The Pikes Peak Center is a quality entertainment, cultural, educational, and assembly center built 1982 to serve as a regional entertainment and cultural center. Since its opening it has achieved international acclaim for its design and acoustical qualities.

We are pleased to announce that the Crowne Plaza - Colorado Springs (<http://www.cpcoloradosprings.com>) has been chosen as the host hotel for the 2012 National EMS Memorial Service.

In addition to providing lodgings for our attendees, the Crowne Plaza will also house the Memorial Service's On-site Office, Registration Area and Gift Shop. Additionally, our Family Luncheon and Breakfast will be hosted here.

Attendees wishing to book rooms for the 2012 Service may do so by visiting <http://nemsms.org/2012> or by calling 1-888-233-9527.

The National EMS Memorial Service honors and remembers members of the national EMS community who have lost their lives in the line of duty.
